

who are on the side of truth listen to my voice."

But the kind of Kingship that Jesus is talking about is very different to what we might regard as a brash regal figure with great powers ruling over a large territory. In fact, it is the complete opposite. Jesus's power of love can be seen in the way he forgives, shows mercy and is open to everyone.

Father Kieran O'Mahony makes a good point about today's Gospel: "The feast we have today and the gospel give us an opportunity to reflect on the different ways in which we, and others, exercise influence and leadership. The authority of Pilate came from position and power. The authority of Jesus came from his integrity and what he stood for."

Kingship is also mentioned elsewhere in the Gospels. In Luke 17:21 Jesus tells us that "The kingdom of God is among you". This reminds us that Jesus continues to accompany us as a community of faith as they travel on our journey of life.

Many of you will know the Church of Christ the King not too far from here in Cabra which is dedicated to today's feast day. It was opened on 29th October 1933 by Archbishop Byrne costing the princely sum of £35,000. Outside the church, there is a striking statue of Christ the King which was sculpted in Trieste. It's a very grand statue which I am sure has made a strong impression on parishioners over the years.

As we come to the end of this Church year, we should allow ourselves some space for prayer and reflection. Next Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent. This a good opportunity for a bit of quiet time with a piece of scripture such as the Gospel from Sunday mass or a reading from a favourite spiritual writer. We might be able to attend daily mass in person or online as our circumstances permit. Or consider a donation to a charity such as the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. These simple suggestions may help us to celebrate Christmas in a more worthy manner as we honour Christ the King.

Feast of Christ the King

21st November 2021

In all four Gospels Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King which was instituted in 1925 and is the last Sunday in our Liturgical Year.

Our Gospel tells us that Jesus was questioned about this claim to be a King in front of Pilate. Jesus says "My kingdom is not of this world" which brings the focus to heaven. Jesus's Kingship is one of service to others. We share in Christ's kingship by being of service to our brothers and sisters. The term "king", as we understand it today, is quite different to what it meant in the time of Jesus. We may think of a largely ceremonial figure who is Head of State but with very little real day to day political power.

However, in New Testament times, Kings were often absolute monarchs with complete control over their subjects and were often the rulers of large territories.

People listening to this reading in the early church would have understood it in this light.

In all four Gospels Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?" Jesus is indeed a King in this story but, from a human point of view, is a very unusual King. He rules from the cross and his gifts to us are forgiveness, mercy and eternal life. The crown that Christ wears is a crown of thorns.

In our Gospel today, Jesus says: "Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all
