

What gifts do you bring with you on your journey?
At times the wise men lost sight of the star.

What clouds have obscured your star on our journey of faith?

At the beginning of this New Year, we can start afresh as we try to make a definite commitment to our faith in the challenging times in which we live. It may be that we could attend mass more regularly or go to confession once a month or perhaps take the opportunity to pray more regularly. We could get involved with one of the parish groups or ministries or perhaps offer to volunteer with the Society of St Vincent de Paul or a different charity that supports the homeless. Whatever we decide to do, it is an opportunity to use our own gifts that we have received in a more effective way in order to be of service to our parish community. Then the ministry that we received at our own baptism will be more fruitful and become a blessing to those around us.

May this be a year of blessings of each and every one of us as we continue on the next chapter of our Christian journey in 2019. Like the wise men in today's Gospel, may it be a journey of enlightenment and hope that will bring us closer to Jesus as we travel together and share our gifts with others. As someone recently said when speaking about the journey of faith in terms of pilgrimage: "Sure we are just walking each other home."

I will conclude with a short prayer written by Father Kieran O'Mahony:

*"You are the mystery at the heart of all that exists:
draw us to yourself, O Lord,
that knowing you we find our true selves,
and finding our true selves,
we may come to know you. Amen."*

"Each of us is really on a pilgrimage, or better on a quest – a quest to become my true self, in the image and likeness of God."

6th January 2019

Father Kieran O'Mahony describes our quest for faith very well:

Happy New Year to you all. Hope you had a peaceful and relaxing Christmas. The Feast of the Epiphany this year falls on a Sunday. We celebrate the arrival of the three wise men in Bethlehem to honour and worship the infant Jesus.

By tradition, they were astrologers who had come in search of the nativity by following a star. In our times, we might use satellite navigation, Google maps or perhaps a printed map to find somewhere unfamiliar but, back over 2,000 years ago, these wise men used the stars in the sky to find their way to their destination.

It's a time for New Year resolutions which may include giving some time to our own search for Jesus in our busy lives.

"In our deepest selves, each of us is a mystery: Where do I come from? Where am I going? Why am I here? How should I live? The risk in our present culture is to sleepwalk through life, to be satisfied with a merely material existence. But the human "project" is much greater. Each of us is really on a pilgrimage, or better on a quest – a quest to become my true self, in the image and likeness of God."

When reflecting on the wise men, Father Kieran makes three interesting points:

Like the wise men, our life journey is not one we travel alone.

Who are the people who share you life journey now?

The wise men travelled bearing gifts.

New Year – As this is the New Year edition of our Parish Newsletter, words of appreciation are due to so many. We were uplifted in spirit by taking part in our annual Carol Service before Christmas. Sincere thanks to all those involved in music ministry in our Parish.

Christmas brings out the best in people and the talents and gifts of parishioners are generously expressed to enhance liturgy, worship and service. I would like to offer thanks to all involved in ministry in our Parish, they provide a great support to people at the various stages in spiritual life.

Our gratitude is also due to our dedicated Sacristans in both Churches which are always spic and span, many thanks to God's Housekeepers who work throughout the year. Thanks also to Dorothy Gray for the seasonal Church décor and our beautiful Crib which as usual this year is splendid and well worth a visit to say a little prayer. Thanks to Margaret & Peter Grimes who decorated the Parish Christmas Tree & a special thank you to Margaret who also prepared the beautiful floral arrangements.

To Parishioners and visitors among us; may I wish you all the blessings and grace of this holy time and may 2019 be filled with joy, peace and happiness.

Volunteer In Your Community

Highfield Healthcare are looking for Volunteers

Would you have some time to come visit their residents in Highfield Healthcare in Whitehall or Glasnevin? The main role of volunteers in Highfield is befriending the residents- just there to talk, listen, reminisce and empathise. You could also bring residents to and from activities. Further info. Tel. Helen Hennessy at 01 886 5435. This can be a challenging role therefore applicants should be in sound health.
