

with the family for several months and it was great to see all the support they got from parishioners.

I first became involved with RCIA about 10 years ago shortly after we moved to Donaghmede. I could never have anticipated that 17 people (so far!) would have taken part in the programme over subsequent years. I would encourage every parish to be welcoming to people who choose to become part of our faith community, so that we can share our experience of the Christian life with them and, through this experience, receive many blessings ourselves.

Today's Gospel is a beautiful touching story of the bringing back to life of a young girl. In the middle of the story, Jesus also finds time to heal an older woman who had been ill for years.

Father Kieran O'Mahony explains:

"The double story is known as the "sandwich technique" and is fairly typical of Mark's writing. There is a profound symbolic meaning in the contrast between the mature woman and the young girl. The stories are also found in Matthew 9:18-26 and Lk 8:40-56."

It is interesting to note that both stories are about women at very different points in their life journey but both are in need of healing. Their encounters with Jesus bring this about and they are then able to carry on with their lives.

The message here may be that we too can encounter Jesus at different points in our lives and these encounters will give us the encouragement and energy to go off in new directions.

I would like to wish you all God's blessing for a happy and enjoyable summer and I hope that you get some time off for refreshment and relaxation.

1st July 2018

We are now at the beginning of the holiday months of July and August when schools are closed and people can enjoy more free time. Some of us may be fortunate enough to be going away for a week or so and others may be staying closer to home. Whatever our circumstances, it is very important to have some "down time" over the next few weeks as our regular commitments may become less demanding and hopefully the weather will remain sunny so that we can enjoy the longer evenings and hopefully continued sunshine. I heard on the radio during the week that Ireland is currently warmer than the Canary Islands!

I was down in Co Kilkenny last weekend and it was wonderful to see all the flowers in full bloom. There is something wonderful about being able to smell the sweet scents of summer flowers on a warm day in the fresh air. The summer may also allow us to spend a little more time with Jesus whether at mass, at prayer or reading the scriptures. When we are going out for a walk perhaps near our beautiful nearby Dublin coastline or sitting in our back garden, it can be a great opportunity to return to a favourite reading in the bible or perhaps one of the readings of the day and reflect on what God may be saying to us in the particular circumstances of our lives.

We can all be extremely busy with work, family and parish commitments. In my case, it was a particular blessing to be able to assist a married couple and their son to receive the sacraments as part of our Donaghmede parish RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) programme. Our RCIA team had been working
